Easter Egg Hunt

HUNT NETS 100 EGGS PER MINUTE

Local youngsters went over the lawn back of Old Rochester Regional High School like a eager bunch of vacuum cleaners. The area was seeded by the Mattapoissett Lions Club with 1500 candy Easter eggs for the hunt on Sunday. In less than 15 minutes the egg gatherers were computing the take which in most cases was considerable. Special prizes were awarded for the 16 hard boiled hen's eggs which were found, and the small boys in the foreground of the bottom left picture were the winners of $1. each for gathering more than 65 eggs each. Prizes for the special eggs were baskets of candy Easter eggs. The snow of last week forced a postponement of the hunt which was fortunate, since the unseasonable summer day on Sunday was just right for the hunt and local youngsters loved it.

Pandolfi explained that they had prepared no encore but the audience demanded more and the band obliged with a repeat of this upbeat selection. This performance featured several movie background themes. "The Man With the Golden Arm" provided them with a chance to display their talents in a jazz theme. This band can handle anything but in this sort of modern, big throated, swinging music they are superb. The band is so full, has such power and some excellent solo instruments that they surpass anything heard around here. In playing "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue", they had a second chance on the jazz theme and provided a brilliant background for the piano soloist, Edmund H. DesRosiers.

Background music from the movie "Hawaii" furnished smooth mood music in counterpoint to the powerful jazz. There were selections from the classics for those fans of Bach and Giordano.

The surprise of the performance was a block buster. If the auditorium chairs had not been bolted to the concrete, the audience would surely have cleared the floor and held a dance. Just before intermission, the curtains were closed and a dance band composed of a small nucleus of the Symphonic Band was formed in the center stage. If you closed your eyes dom was there. This dance band could thrill anyone anywhere. Throughout, the audience's feet tapped and shoulders swayed. It was simply great. The group played 3 selections and the audience clapped and roared for more, but they had practiced (incredibly) for one short week and had prepared only those 3 numbers.

It's a thrill to hear such music. This Symphonic Band is a great band and each performance is an event.

SURVEY UNDERWAY

Mattapoisett is having a survey made by Arthur Thompson to determine the boundaries of the Trading Post property on Route 6 and Brandt Island Road in order to discover how the new addition to the Trading Post fits. The adjoining property is town owned.

The Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen voted unanimously to revoke the Trading Post license for a pool table.

that are available and how they are prepared and served. After the supper, Mrs. Delano will be available to answer questions on how she serves so many so effortlessly.

The menu will be "Children's Favorite Meal": orange juice, oven-barbecued chicken, whipped potato, peas and carrots, cranberry sauce, filled cupcake and coffee. The price is 65¢ per person, and members are asked to bring the correct change. Any PTC member who wishes to go and has not been notified by a notice from school may make a reservation by contacting Mrs. Wayne Bailey, 758-2316. All reservations must be in by April 7.

"The Past" - There will be a review of how the club began in 1926; and invitations are extended to all former PTC presidents and leaders and the Mattapoissett School committee to join with the parents, teachers and friends of Mattapoissett school children at this meeting. "The Present" - The present will be represented by the new library being open for inspection (as the long-awaited furniture, shelves and books have arrived and are now in use) and by a display of projects, themes and drawings done by the children. Of special interest will be a display of musical instruments made by the music class of Mrs. Richard Blasdale.

"The Future" - will be the announcement and introduction of the 1967-68 executive board.

Election of officers will be held during the business meeting following the supper. A ballot has been prepared according to the by-laws, and also nominations will be accepted from the floor.

The April meeting has been prepared by Mrs. Wayne Bailey, hospitality chairman, and the April program committee: Mrs. Harlan Broadwater, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Buckley, Mrs. Gordon Beale, Mrs. Herbert Arral and Mrs. Haakon Eilertsen.

OLD FASHIONED MELODRAMA BY MARION COUPLES CLUB

Old Rochester Regional High School will be the setting for an authentic revival of old fashioned melodrama Saturday afternoon and evening, April 8, when the Couples Club of Marion Congregational Church presented "Gold in the Hills or the Dead Sister's Secret".

Children and senior citizens are especially invited to the matinee at 1:30. The evening performance will be at 8 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained from members of the club or at the door.

Arthur Tebbetts is director, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Sabbagh, and the cast of 30 includes the following: speaker of the prologue, Mr. Tebbetts; Lizzie Jones, Mrs. Herbert Lyon; Barbara Stanley, Heather Lowe; Hiram Stanley, Dr. Earland D. Briggs; Nell Stanley, Mrs. Ed-

WOMAN'S CLUB "SHOW & TELL" DAY

The second annual "Show & Tell" Day of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club was held last Thursday in the parish hall of the Congregational Church with approximately 135 members and guests attending. Coffee at 10 A.M. was served by members of the Bowling Group, Mrs. Gordon Beale, chairman.

The program opened with a one-act play, "Dear Millie", by Fred Carmichael, presented by the drama group, Mrs. John R. Moynihan, chairman. This one-act comedy, involving a writer of a lonely hearts column, Millie Tyson, and 3 of her lifelong friends who play a practical joke on her only to have backfire, was well received by the audience. Millie was played by Mrs. Roger Kelley. Her 3 friends were Mrs. Donald C. Jason as Eloise Matthews, Mrs. Ralph Ashworth as Lucille Jameson and Mrs. Harold Luther as Julia Corley. Others in the cast were Mrs. Richard Hoeh as Jo Tyson and Mrs. Frank Kouble as Betty, Millie's secretary and maid respectively. The play was directed by Mrs. Moynihan and prompter was Mrs. Gertrude Fietz.

Mrs. Harlan Broadwater acted as commentator for a style show by members who modeled their own creations. Mrs. Broadwater wore her own creation of a black and white sleeveless summer cotton. Mrs. Frank Oxnard, club president, opened the style show in a tangerine A-line shift in cotton knit. She also modeled as the closing number a full length gown of pastel pink brocade lined in pink taffeta. A red raincoat and matching hat in coated sheer nylon was shown by Mrs. Victor Vogel. She made a second appearance in a wool coat of jade green under which she wore a light beige silk 2-piece dress with A-line skirt. Mrs. James Harris modeled a 2-piece green velour suit with straight skirt and raglan sleeves. Her second outfit was a tent dress in a flashy cotton of many colors and with it she wore a yellow jockey hat.

Mrs. Joseph Nunes modeled a coolie blouse of cotton knit in an orange print with green trim over a slim black skirt. She also modeled a blue and white short sleeved dress of cotton and nylon with white trim. An aqua and white check wool suit was shown by Mrs. Richard Hoeh. The jacket had an asymmetrical front closing and the skirt was A-line.

The American Home and Garden Group joined with the Fine Arts and Music Group as co-sponsor for the April 25th tour and is responsible for much of the interest being shown. The handsome poster for the gala spring tour to "Mrs. Jack's", displayed on "Show & Tell Day", was from the studio of Mrs. Clarence F. Fountain, a club member, and may have been one reason why there was a rush to the "box office".

GROUP MEETING ON RETARDED CHILDREN

Children of all ages who are in need of special care and education can be given a brighter outlook if their parents will join with other parents in the area group recently formed with Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester residents. Members of the group wish to emphasize that it is the slow learner or the handicapped child, as well as the retarded child, who need to be assisted in fitting them for the future.

The meeting, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Threlfall in Marion, permitted parents to discuss their individual problems in a group which was led by Mrs. Dennis Sylvia. Pamphlets that were distributed at a previous meeting were reviewed in an effort to apply benefits derived by other communities to this area.

An invitation had been extended to Dr. Joseph C. Kunces, superintendent of the Old Rochester School District, to attend the meeting and inform the parents on educational possibilities within these three towns. He was unable to attend due to a school committee meeting. However, he stressed in a letter to Mrs. Sylvia that he was very will-

EASTER STORY IN ART

The Easter Story in Art will be shown at the North Rochester Congregational Church Sunday evening, April 9th, at 7 P.M. The episode starts with the entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday through Christ's Passion and Ascension, illustrated by paintings and prints from the National Gallery's collection. The great Christian drama is represented in works by Durer, Rembrandt, El Greco, and many other leading artists. Each picture has a brief text to bring out any part that may be missed while viewing the slides. Everyone is welcome.

The goal of the drive is to enroll each person in the Old Rochester Regional School District as members of the CSF. Many local clubs have already joined in the drive by contributing $100 or more to sponsor scholarships. In 1966 over $4000 was awarded to 21 seniors and graduates of ORR. Anyone who is not at home on Saturday and Sunday, April 8-9, or anyone who is missed in the home solicitation, may enroll in the CSF by mailing their contribution to Box 605, Mattapoisett.

Awards, based primarily on need, will be announced this spring. All students in the three towns are eligible to apply for awards.

will be taken over by the non-commercial exhibitors, hobbyists, clubs and individuals. Among these will be weaving on a hand loom, and the New Bedford Revolver and Rifle Club will show step by step the procedure in the reloading of an actual cartridge, using simulated gun powder for safety purposes. Also, there will be a talk on the safe use and handling of firearms, and an explanation of just what Pistol League competition is and how the hobby can be undertaken.

The Fairhaven Whalers Skin Diving Club's exhibit in the lobby, will display equipment and artifacts recovered from 15-20 shipwrecks, including that of the Granite State, sister ship to the U.S.S. Constitution, and the U.S.S. Yankee, a 400-foot Navy Cruiser located in the New Bedford Harbor. Copper spikes and fastenings forged by Paul Revere from the Granite State will be displayed on a panel with other artifacts and marine life specimens.

Included in other non-commercial displays will be braided rugs, crewel embroidery, dolls, bells, teapots, stamps, rock collections, paintings, liquid embroidery, painted trays and ceramics.

The New Bedford Astronomical Society's display will be attended by club members who will answer questions about their programs,
